

Hebrew Words Translated “Praise” Continued

I. HALAL (Celebration Praise)

A. Of the seven words translated “praise”, the one used _____ in Scripture ... yet the one _____.

B. Halal means:

C. Associated words:

D. In halal, _____ is involved than in todah or yahah.

E. One scholar has said, “at its finest, halal is _____.”

1. _____ and _____ were and are common manifestations of this form of praise.

F. Biblically, halal was a main component of _____ and was in response to _____ - it was NOT _____.

G. “Hallelujah” means _____.
It is a _____ not a _____!!!

H. The picture halal paints:

I. WHO is to Halal the Lord?

J. WHEN to halal?

K. WHERE to halal?

L. HOW to halal?

II. BAROK or BARAK (Adoration Praise)

- A. Most often translated _____; sometimes as _____; only translated as praise _____; It implies _____
- B. Some sources state barak is derived from:
- C. A few of the passages where barak is enjoined or demonstrated:
- D. How often are we called to praise Him this way?
- E. The picture barak paints:
- F. We can barak the Lord as we _____

III. SHABACH (Extolling Praise)

- A. A primary root which is used 2 ways:
- B. Used _____ in Old Testament, usually just translated praise but sometimes translated _____. Most of the time it is used a form that implies _____ and _____.
- C. Some passages which reveal our call to shabach the Lord:
- D. Aramaic version of shabach:
- E. We may shabach the Lord in _____

